

Pastoral Parish Council

Summary for January 23, 2018 Meeting

The Pastoral Council held its regularly scheduled meeting on January 23, 2018. The Council discussed Family Formation and noted the increased competition from other publishers regarding family based catechesis programs. The council also discussed the updating and remodeling of the old office area, which should begin this spring. Fr. Jim announced that he is looking for someone who feels called to lead the new members welcoming group. In addition, the council heard about the amazing year of RCIA – with a record number of candidates (10+ adults and 8+ children) and also discussed the fruitful Life in the Spirit seminar this fall with over 25 participants.
